It was proposed by Councillor H Unwin, seconded by Councillor Vaughan-Hodkinson, all were in favour and thus it was AGREED that the meeting should suspend Standing Orders to enable Members to reconsider the ticket cost for this event.

A lengthy discussion took place regarding the costs for our residents to attend the event. Due to the increased overall costs, it was proposed by Councillor Vaughan-Hodkinson and seconded by Councillor Creed that the tickets should be £10 with £2 refunded at the event. Councillor Snell proposed that the tickets be £12 with £5 refunded (there was no seconder) and Councillor Cranfield proposed that the tickets should be £10 with no refund, this was seconded by Councillor Tyrrell.
